

Would you like to be a writer?

The Lake County Library System invites you to submit stories, plays and poems for publication on our website www.lakeline.lib.fl.us, the Lakeline Kids Story Corner page. Fill out the following information and attach a typewritten copy of your ORIGINAL unpublished work. If you have illustrations, these may be submitted as well on unlined paper. You may submit copies with the release form below, to any of the Lake County Library System libraries or you may send them through the mail.

All works will be reviewed by the Lake County Library System Publication Committee and acceptance is subject to review and availability of space. You will be notified in writing if your work is selected. Originals will not be returned so keep a copy.
